$1500 REWARD

FOR

BEN B. MYATT

FRANKLIN, TEXAS, NOVEMBER 15, 1911

DESCRIPTION

About 5 feet, 9 inches high, rather slender build, weight about 130 to 150, dark brown hair, brown eyes, rather large; has a perceptible stoop in shoulders, carries his head down, has an intelligent face and engaging manners, not very talkative, unless drinking; worn moustache, not very heavy, dark brown in color, inclined to droop; has scar on left temple or behind left ear, in edge of hair, perceptible when hair is cut short; hands delicate, fingers slender; wears about 6 or 7 shoe; sallow complexion; about 25 years old; has more than average amount of hair on hands and fingers; has a peculiar trait of flashing a glance at you when in conversation, rather than a steady look; has a high forehead, with hair rather thin on forehead, and temples; when last seen had about 3 1/2 inch growth of whiskers on face, very heavy, naturally dark brown or black; has a fondness for lewd women, may be found in low resorts of that kind, in isolated places; seeks the lowest grade of people, plays the violin, generally "breakdown" music for some country dance; is a smooth criminal, capable of most any disguise; the above picture was taken about 8 years ago is an inveterate gambler; when he escaped from the Corsicana jail he looked 10 or 12 years older than the attached picture.

The above is an accurate description of the man, without disguise, but we have information that he has, or will change appearance in every conceivable way, in fact I am positive that he has, or will do so cannot disguise.

He is under a death sentence for the brutal murder of his wife in 1910. This case was one of the most widely published, as well as the most horrible murders ever committed in Texas or any other State. This case was changed from Robertson to Falls county, at which time a case was pending, with a change of venue, to Navarro county, for the murder of John Cook. Myatt was tried in Marlin within thirty days after the murder of his wife, receiving the death sentence; he afterwards escaped from the Corsicana jail, a few days after receiving a life sentence for the murder of John Cook.

The Governor has offered $1,000 reward, and I will guarantee $500.00 in addition from this county.

WILL RUSHING,

Sheriff, Robertson County, Texas.

On September 11th, 1912, he plead guilty to the charge of making, uttering and passing a fictitious check (a felony) and was sentenced by Honorable Paul J. McCormick, Judge of the Superior Court of Los Angeles County, California, to a term of one year in the penitentiary at San Quentin, California. This sentence was passed after probation had been denied.

Among his other accomplishments he seems to have been something of a hotel beat. Where he left unpaid bills at hotels, these were paid by his wife, presumably after his arrest.

Claims to have an interest in an estate left by his uncle in New York State. Obtained power of attorney from his wife after the death of her father, and before same could be rescinded, he succeeded in squandering over $3,000 belonging to said estate.

I will pay the above reward for the arrest and delivery to me of the above Lloyd E. Knapp, alias Linsey King, in any jail in the United States.

183 NINTH ST.

He was paroled recently from Preston, and immediately left. A boy told me he saw him the other day in Sacramento. He is a diamond thief, and going as he did leads me to feel that he is not straight. I have no description of him, but he is medium height, has brown eyes. Dresses well. Brown hair and very good looking.

I think he is worth watching and if you succeed in getting him arrest and notify me as he has to do the right thing or go back to Preston. I will try soon to get you a better description of him.

Thanking you for any help in this matter, I remain

Yours truly,

Escaped from the Richland County jail, Mansfield, Ohio, on the morning of November 28, 1913, William Ervin Tindall and Edward Burggraf. These men made their get-away together, and may possibly be traveling together, although they were seen to separate shortly after they left the jail here.

Description of William Ervin Tindall: About 35 years of age, 5 feet, 6 inches high, weighs about 170 or 175 pounds; dark brown hair, medium dark brown eyes, stocky build; medium dark complexion and was wearing a dark brown suit of clothes and a grey cap. He may be wearing a beard or mustache now.

Tindall is of a boastful disposition, good talker, good penman, fond of strong drink, and will probably be found around saloons and sporting places.

On Nov. 28, 1913, Harry Gordon, alias Harry Smolensky, alias John Graham, alias Chink; and Benjamin Frank, alias Little Alter, alias Labner, alias Harry Cohen, alias Joe Cohen, were arrested in this city, while operating on a safe in United Cigar Store. These men were identified by the New York Police Department as loft and safe burglars who operate by drilling holes in the upper left hand corners of safes, and then ripping off front, using large sectional jimmies.

When arrested here, the hotel where they were stopping was located, and we found that they had been associating with the members of a burlesque company that showed in Detroit, Buffalo and this city; there were two jewelry stores safes opened in Detroit, and a large amount of property taken while these men were known to have been in that city; also the safe in the Mohican Store in Buffalo was burglarized while they were in Buffalo.

They were held for the Grand Jury in this city as we have a positive case against them, as they were caught in the act of burglarizing a safe, and having secured all their drills, jimmies, dynamite, percussion caps, revolvers and other paraphernalia; and they were confined in the Monroe County Jail, awaiting the action of the Supreme Court.

About noon this date Harry Gordon, alias Harry Smolensky, alias Chink, etc., whose photo, description and a sample of handwriting appears below, got away from the jail where the jail authorities were making some alterations.

He is a man about forty years of age; weighs about 180 pounds; height 5 feet 11 inches; blue eyes; brown hair (thin on top) straight nose; round face, medium mouth, has a small scar near the angle of the right eye. When he is left here he wore dark clothes, black shoes and dark soft hat. The man is not dangerous but is quite demoralized; talks to himself.⁶ If the man is wearing the clothes he has on when he is left here, you will find every article is marked with his name in indelible ink, unless it has been removed it.

He has mailed several letters since he left the institution. They were addressed to the same parties; namely, Mr. Henry H. Christensen & H. Wagle, Inc., of Chicago. In the lower left hand corner of all, he writes "Inmate No. 111, Illinois." He will write "insane" hospital envelope below this "Doctors & Lawyers." On others he will have "Insane Ward & Asylum" and "Asylum & Hospital" and beneath one he has written "Manufacturers & Publishers." One thing that is characteristic of the letters he writes is that the letter is first addressed in pencil and written over in ink. This has been the case in all the letters he has mailed. Harry Truesdell was committed here from Alameda County was paroled and recommitted from the same County. While in the Detention Home in Oakland he struck Officer Page. He struck W. S. Williams, then assistant Superintendent here, with a pitcher and later struck me in the back of the neck when I was not looking and tried to escape. He and James Gregg and another Oakland roughneck stole a Surrey and a pair of horses and drove to Lone from Oakland. Under the seat they had a sheath knife, a revolver and a rifle. Of course I do not know what they were going to do with these implements but I am pretty sure that they were not hunting Blue Jays. Chief if you can do anything for me in regard to this fellow I wish that you would do it. I promised him that if he ever got into trouble I would send him my "Love". I understand that you have him under arrest for highway robbery. If you need any further information you can get it from Alameda County. He is, according to our records, about 20 years and 6 months of age.
